ASME welcomes changes to Cabinet

Singapore, 23 April 2019 – The Association of Small & Medium Enterprises (ASME) looks forward to the next generation of leadership that is gradually taking shape for Singapore. The reshuffling of the Cabinet is the result of long-term vision, and preparation to ensure a smooth leadership transition.

APPRECIATION

ASME thanks Mr Teo Chee Hean and Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam for their years of service as Deputy Prime Ministers to the nation. Their statesmanship and commitment to building a stronger Singapore have made a significant impact on the community. As they assume duties as Senior Ministers in the Cabinet, ASME is confident that both Ministers will continue in the same spirit to bring Singapore to greater heights.

CONGRATULATIONS

ASME offers its warmest congratulations to Mr Heng Swee Keat as he assumes duties as the Deputy Prime Minister with effect from 1 May 2019. We are confident that Minister Heng's upcoming appointment will serve to enhance the country's achievements on many fronts. ASME looks forward to working closely with Minister Heng in the near future to secure a better and brighter future for Singapore.

ABOUT ASME

ASSOCIATION OF SMALL & MEDIUM ENTERPRISES (ASME)

The Association of Small & Medium Enterprises (ASME) is a not-for-profit organisation established in 1986 for entrepreneurs, by entrepreneurs. With wide-ranging services and programmes, ASME strives to equip member SMEs with the business knowledge and market opportunities to help them grow their businesses.

ASME, as the champion of a pro-enterprise Singapore, bridges the public and the private sectors to promote a more conducive business environment which facilitates the start-up, growth and development of a larger pool of SMEs. The two ASME flagship awards – The Entrepreneur of the Year Award and Singapore Prestige Brand Award – are in recognition of SMEs' successes.

ASME will continue to roll out new SME-relevant programmes to enhance its position as THE business association For Entrepreneurs, By Entrepreneurs.
